Purpose of the Post

Please note that this post is only suitable to students at Royal Holloway University.

We are seeking enthusiastic students to join the Active Lifestyle and Sport department on a part-time casual basis to help assist the Social League Football programme.

The post holders will contribute to our growing football offer as part of our successful participation programme with particular responsibility for refereeing the Football Social Leagues.

Successful applicants will hold a football refereeing qualification (FA small sided, minimum). With a keen interest in football and sports development, you will be flexible, with good communication and interpersonal skills. You will also be highly motivated, enthusiastic and have the ability to work unsupervised and use your own initiative.

Successful applicants must have the ability to remain calm under pressure and always be honest and completely impartial.

Key Tasks

Delivery

- Provide refereeing services (e.g. follow the play and make decisions, communicate clearly with players, control the behaviour of teams on the pitch) for Social League and ad hoc football matches
• Inspect pitch and markings, and ensure equipment is safely set up before each match.

• Attend and help with the delivery of any one-off football events.

Other

• The post holder may be asked to undertake different responsibilities of a similar nature as the needs of the department change.

• Attend one-to-ones with line manager, group team meetings and training days as required (including specific National Activator / Coordinator training).

• Any other duties as required by the line manager or Head of Department that are commensurate with the grade.

• As the needs of the College change so the above job profile, duties and location of the role within the department of the College may be adjusted accordingly.
