Job Description

Job Title: EPRSC Postdoctoral Fellow
Department / Unit: School of Politics, International Relations and Philosophy
Job type Research
Grade: 7/33
Accountable to: Head of the School (Chris Hanretty)

Purpose of the Post

The EPRSC postdoctoral fellow will carry out an eighteen month investigation into interactions between public policies and institutions, marginalised communities, and the digital infrastructure that shapes those interactions.

Key Tasks

1. To conduct fieldwork amongst refugee and migrant communities in the UK, Sweden and Denmark
2. To produce policy reports and other associated impact activities
3. To produce academic papers on the interactions between public policies and institutions, marginalised communities, and the digital infrastructure that shapes those interactions.
4. To work together with project leaders to discuss ongoing research and impact related activities forming part of the 'People-Powered Algorithms' Project
5. To assist with the administration and management of the 'People-Powered Algorithms' Project

Main Contacts

The post holder will work with Professor Lizzie Coles-Kemp and Dr Will Jones, in the Information Security Group and the School of Politics, International Relations and Philosophy respectively.

A research, travel and training budget is attached to each post. Royal Holloway is committed to employer development and offers opportunities for training and a mentoring scheme for all employees.

Other Duties
The duties listed are not exhaustive and may be varied from time to time as dictated by the changing needs of the College. The post holder will be expected to undertake other duties as appropriate and as requested by his/her manager. The post holder may be required to work at any of the locations at which the business of Royal Holloway is conducted.