Job Title: Professor of Creative Industries (Professional Practice)

Department / Unit: School of Performing and Digital Arts

Job type: Full Time, Permanent

Grade: Professorial

Accountable to: Head of School of Performing & Digital Arts

Purpose of the Post

The role’s primary purpose is to serve as a Professor in Professional Practice in order to develop public engagement within industry, contribute to the College’s Public Engagement strategy, including initiating and managing partnerships and projects within the area and to provide staff and students opportunities to develop their understanding of public engagement.

The post-holder is responsible for:

- Championing a culture of Public Engagement across the School and in conjunction with College, encouraging reciprocity, dialogue and knowledge exchange in research orientated PE and utilising PE to showcase excellence in teaching and unique student experiences at Royal Holloway.

Key Tasks

Professional Practice

- Maintain a national profile of practice with significant and substantial projects through to world-leading paradigm shifting practice for the most senior professorial level.
- Demonstrate and maintain substantial and significant networks within industry, business and professional bodies.
- Lead substantial projects with external agencies,
- Provide high level consultancy benefitting the College,
- Publish to publications which enhance the field of practice and reputation of the College
- Maintain recognition by a professional body at an advanced level.
- Attain significant success in obtaining industry support or knowledge exchanges monies individually or as a co-investigator.
Teaching
- Develop and deliver excellent learning activities over a significant period of time.

External Engagement and Impact
- Engage in highest levels of knowledge transfer or application of practice to field of expertise
- Display a positive impact on practice of teaching, third stream and consultancy activities which benefit the College.
- Instigate and engage in public forums, community meetings or links with business, health or government and policy groups.

Leadership and Enhancement
- Maintain leadership through contributions to external bodies and networks, mentoring and well-developed management skills.
- Supervision of professional doctoral or DClinPsy students to completion OR Supervision of research staff or students in professional contexts for delivery of large-scale creative industries projects
- Innovate beyond Royal Holloway e.g. development of institutional level policy for an external body

Other Duties
The duties listed are not exhaustive and may be varied from time to time as dictated by the changing needs of the College. The post holder will be expected to undertake other duties as appropriate and as requested by his/her manager. The post may be required to work anti-social hours on occasions.

The post holder may be required to work at any of the locations at which the business of Royal Holloway is conducted.

Internal and external relationships
The following list is not exhaustive but the post holder will be required to liaise with:
- Vice-Principal for Research Impact and Interdisciplinary
- Impact Managers (R&E)
- School Directors of Research
- School Director of Student Recruitment
- Head of Events
- Communications and External Relations team
- Volunteering team
- Heads of Schools