

PERSON SPECIFICATION

Details on the qualifications, experience, skills, knowledge and abilities that are needed to fulfil this role are set out below.

Job Title: Lab Research Support Technician

Department: Earth Sciences

| | Essential | Desirable | Tested by Application Form/Interview/Test |
|--|-----------|-----------|---|
| Knowledge, Education, Qualifications and Training | | | |
| Degree or equivalent level qualification in Environmental Science (or related subjects) | | X | Application, interview |
| First Aid at work (or willingness to be trained) | | X | Application, interview |
| Skills and Abilities | | | |
| Practical laboratory skills | X | | Application, interview |
| Ability to complete basic laboratory procedures without supervision | X | | Application, interview |
| Good communication skills to effectively liaise with a range of staff and students using the facilities. | X | | Application, interview |
| Computer skills (file management, spreadsheets) | X | | Application, interview |
| Organisational skills (ability to prioritise and schedule own workload) | X | | Application, interview |
| Willingness to learn new laboratory skills | X | | Application, interview |
| Experience | | | |
| Of working in adherence to health and safety procedures and precautions in routine processes | X | | Application, interview |
| Laboratory experience at Undergraduate or PGT level | X | | |
| Experience of data handling | X | | Application, interview |
| Experience of preparing laboratory risk assessments | | X | Application, interview |
| Other requirements | | | |
| Ability to physically undertake the duties associated with the role, including manual handling | X | | Application, interview |
| Availability to work variable hours | | X | Application, interview |