

JOB DESCRIPTION

Job Title:	Post-Doctoral Research Associate
Department / Unit:	Geography
Job type	Research
Grade:	RHUL 7
Accountable to:	Professor Jay Mistry
Accountable for:	N/A
Purpose of the Post
To contribute to the analysis of fire governance in the wider context of the governance of land and resources within the Leverhulme Centre for Wildfires, Environment and Society.
Key Tasks
To lead research on multi-level governance, and whether and how fire is represented in international agreements and national laws, and how these constrain and/or enable local level fire governance. This will include leading and facilitating interdisciplinary, inter-sectoral and international collaborations.
To develop and apply an equity approach to evaluate the differing agendas and motivations in fire management, the importance and challenge of partnerships, and how different actors perceive just outcomes and processes in different forms of fire management. This may involve periods of international fieldwork, and the applicant must be willing and able to travel and work in Global South settings.
To work closely with a large number of academics, postdoctoral researchers and PhD students across the Centre's natural and social sciences in order to contribute to an interdisciplinary understanding of fire governance.
To facilitate Indigenous, local community and fire practitioner engagement with the Centre's mission.
To contribute to the dissemination of findings through conference presentations and journal articles, collaborating with others as necessary.

To contribute to the overall activities of the research team and the department as appropriate.

To carry out any other duties as are within the scope, spirit and purpose of the job as requested by the Associate Director.

Any other duties as required by the line manager or Head of Department that are commensurate with the grade.

Other Duties

The duties listed are not exhaustive and may be varied from time to time as dictated by the changing needs of the University. The post holder will be expected to undertake other duties as appropriate and as requested by their manager.

The post holder may be required to work at any of the locations at which the business of Royal Holloway is conducted.

Internal and external relationships

The postholder will be required to regularly work at the Leverhulme Centre's hubs in Central London.
