

Job Description

Job Title:	Lecturer in Clinical Psychology (Professional Practice)
Department:	Part-Time (0.9 FTE), Permanent, Psychology
Job type:	Academic
Grade:	RHUL 8
Accountable to:	DClinPsy Course Director
Accountable for:	n/a

Purpose of the Post

The post holder will be expected to contribute across the varied aspects of the DClinPsy delivery, including teaching, research supervision, selection, assessments and other programme/departmental administrative roles.

Key Tasks

Teaching

- Design and deliver high-quality teaching, working with others as appropriate to create a successful learning environment for students
- To engage with up-to-date literature and expertise in their professional field
- To engage in teaching innovation, whether internally or externally
- To undertake activities supporting teaching delivery including undertaking assessments and marking ensuring that constructive feedback is provided to foster development
- To act as trainee personal tutor and/or line manager ensuring appropriate support and advice is provided

Professional Practice

- Develop their role in relation to training in a way that is relevant to the wider training community
- Engage with external networks relevant to practice in clinical psychology
- Disseminate practice expertise through workshops or seminars or other relevant forums
- Engage in a range of activities relevant to the development of professional practice in clinical psychology
- Carry out placement assessments of practice
- Carry out trainee selection and recruitment

Research

- Conduct research and audit to inform innovation related to the DClinPsy delivery.
- Conduct impactful professional practice research
- Supervise clinical psychology doctoral and masters level research projects
- Disseminate and publish research related to clinical psychology

Leadership, Enhancement, External Engagement and Impact

- Contribute to the operational delivery and accreditation of a specific area of the DClinPsy, ensuring outcomes meet the needs of students and accrediting bodies
- To play a full and active part in the administration of the Department, the Faculty and University and its external promotion, attending meetings/working groups as appropriate
- To contribute to the Course's strategic planning and development
- To advise and provide support to less experienced colleagues
- To be active in learned societies and/or professional bodies, undertake external examining, obtain consultancy projects, or build professional practice relationships for future activities
- To engage and maintain continuous professional development

Other Duties

- Show a commitment to diversity, equal opportunities and anti-discriminatory practices; this includes undertaking mandatory equality and diversity training
- Comply with appraisal, induction, and performance reviews
- Comply with HCPC standards and maintain HCPC registration
- Enhanced DBS Disclosure is required
- The postholder is encouraged to engage in ongoing clinical work in a local healthcare setting
- Comply with University regulations, policies and procedures and fulfil the employees' duties described in the University's health and safety policies
- Complete Capital training to become a Fellow of the Higher Education Academy.
- Complete work to achieve a Doctorate Award or PhD if this has not already been awarded

The duties listed are not exhaustive and may be varied from time to time as dictated by the changing needs of the University. The post holder will be expected to undertake other duties as appropriate and as requested by their manager.

Our Values

Advancing equity and inclusion is central to our identity as a University of Social Purpose, guided by our values of being Respectful, Innovative, Open, and Daring. We strive to build a fair and inclusive environment for all colleagues and students, where we challenge ourselves and others with integrity, and approach difference with understanding and kindness. Every member of our community is expected to treat others with dignity, work collaboratively across a wide range of backgrounds and perspectives, and contribute to a place where everyone can participate fully and feel valued.

Person Specification

Details on the qualifications, experience, skills, knowledge and abilities that are needed to fulfil this role are set out below.

Job Title: Lecturer in Clinical Psychology
(Professional Practice)

Department: Psychology

Criteria	Essential	Desirable
Knowledge, Education, Qualifications and Training
PhD and/or Doctoral Level Qualification as a Clinical Psychologist (DClinPsy) or equivalent	✓
Registration as a Health and Care Professions Council Clinical Psychologist	✓
Chartered status with the BPS		✓
Knowledge of accreditation procedures from professional bodies (HCPC / BPS)		✓
Additional Professional Qualifications (BABCP or AFSP/UKCP Registered practitioner)		✓
Skills and Abilities
Excellent evidenced-based knowledge and clinical skills related to clinical psychology	✓
Excellent Teaching skills demonstrated with large (N=60) and small groups (N=10)	✓
Ability to develop and deliver effective clinical teaching, assessment and competence monitoring procedures.	✓
Ability to develop collaborative working relationships with internal and external individuals and agencies.	✓
Ability to work with a team of Lecturers and stakeholders to achieve course delivery.	✓
Ability to conduct doctoral level research related to clinical psychology	✓
Ability to supervise doctoral level research related to clinical psychology	✓
Experience
Experience of Clinical Psychology Practice within the NHS	✓
Experience of supervising clinical psychology practice		✓
Experience of disseminating and publishing impactful research in clinical psychology		✓
Other Requirements
A commitment to continuous professional development in relation to teaching, learning, assessment and clinical practice.	✓	